

AVERY LANE

Tucked along the Greenway-Hayden Loop, Avery Lane could easily be found among the boutiques dotting the heart of the Saint-Germain-des-Prés neighborhood of Paris, best known for chic classic design, books & home furnishings. This über chic new consignment store features designer furnishings from name brands such as Donghia, Henredon, Baker and Kreiss, mixed in with fine French, Italian and English antiques from some of Paradise Valley, Scottsdale, and Arcadia's finest homes creating an enchanting eclectic vibe.

❖ Consign Design Tip ❖ A room can be instantly changed by a defining piece of art that reflects the owners' personalities, travels and interests. Such as an original oil by Roberto Marquez titled "Thirteen Ways of Looking at a Blackbird" – Avery Lane is proud to present this intriguing piece from a prominent local estate.

Store owner Darlene Richert and her design team will help you find the perfect accessory to complete a room – or furnish your entire home. Visit today and discover North Scottsdale's new home shopping destination.

❖ Bergère Chairs ❖ Meow! Everyone is purrrrrring for this pair of divine Tomlinson Cheetah chairs. They add just the right element of surprise to any home.

❖ Chandelier ❖ "Let there be light!" God knew it would make a big impact and designers universally agree. This Chihuly-like Chandelier by Newt Grover is an amazing work of art and will make any room extraordinary!

❖ Antique Wedding Cabinet ❖ Antiques add an element of charm and history to a home. This 1837 Austrian wedding cabinet was the traditional wedding gift with the bride and groom's name painted along the top. The ideal "Tres' Chic!" storage piece for linens, dishware, or party games.

Come peruse Avery Lane's 8,000 sq. ft. showroom to see these pieces creatively mixed together with a gamut of styles at prices you won't believe. ❖
